Lesson 14: I Am Imperishable

Begin using on August 28, 2016

1. As kids we often think we are going to live forever, when did you first realize that life ended? What were the emotions that accompanied that realization?

Read I Peter 1:23-25 and I Corinthians 15:35-58

2. List all of the changes in I Corinthians 15 that will take place when we are resurrected. What defines our life now? What defines our life in the resurrection?
3. According to I Peter 1:23-25, what lasts forever?
Christ, the eternal (undying) Son of God left heaven and came to earth and died (Philippians 2:5-8), so that I, who am bound by death, could live eternally.
4. In what ways do I live as if Death still has power over me? What would mark my life if I truly believed that I was imperishable (see II Corinthians 15:58)?
5. Do I know people who are living without this hope of life to come? If so, how can I share this hope with them? If not, how can I put myself in situations to meet people who need to hear of this great hope?
