I Am Treasured

New City Catechism (Children's answers are in color.)

Q 24: Why was it necessary for Christ the Redeemer to die?

A: Since death is the punishment for sin, Christ dies willingly in our place to deliver us from the power and penalty of sin and bring us back to God. By his substitutionary atoning death, he alone redeems us from hell and gains for us forgiveness of sin, righteous, and everlasting life.

Memory Verse

So that the tested genuineness of your faith-- more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire-- may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. I Peter 1:6-7

Song

Gladly Would I Leave Behind Me

Ann Griffiths (v.1), music and add. words, Doug Plank

Gladly would I leave behind me all the pleasure I have known to pursue surpassing treasures at the throne of God the Son.
Worthy of unending worship, love and loveliness is he.
By his precious death were millions from the jaws of death set free.

Gladly would I give to Jesus all affection, everything, for the washing of his mercy makes my ransomed heart to sing.
"Holy, holy!" is the chorus rising up from those who see Christ exalted, bright and burning, full of pow'r and purity.

Chorus: Where else can I go? Jesus, you're the One that I was made to know.

What else can I do? Jesus, you're my all;
I gladly run to you.

Gladly would I flee temptations for their troubles fill my life, turn and seek my God and Savior for his goodness satisfies.
Earthly treasures, all are passing; thieves break in and rust destroys,
but in God are awesome splendor love, and everlasting joys.
