the details

the speaker

steve dallwig

Steve is currently the Director of Family Ministries at Chapelgate Church in Marriottsville, MD. He did youth ministry for close to 20 years, many of which were working directly with middle schoolers. As an awkward middle schooler once himself, he understands how difficult and confusing life can be and that our only real source of life and meaning comes through knowing Jesus. Steve loves spending time with his family, his wife Cathy, 4 teenage boys and his manly poodle Samson.

chris reid

Chris is the director of worship and music at Chapelgate Church. He was born at a very early age and decided on career in music after circus performing and otolaryngology didn't pan out. He is famous for many things, including, but not limited to, his love of soft pretzels, invention of the semi-colon, and a pitiful Scottish accent. His wife, Janell, in a fit of questionable judgement, agreed to marry him 13 years ago. His 3 children - Cameron (11 yrs old), Travis, (11 yrs old), and Morgan (7 yrs old) tolerate his poor attempts at comedy. Despite being ridiculously successful, he remains down-to-earth, a poor fiction writer, and short.

waiver

We, the undersigned parent/guardian hereby authorize our son/daughter to attend the middle school camp Victory Jam in Harvey Cedars, NJ on June 24-28, 2013. In the event of an emergency, we understand that reasonable efforts will be undertaken to contact us. Nevertheless, we give permission to the physician selected by the youth director or accompanying church adults to hospitalize, secure proper treatment for and to order injection, anesthesia, or surgery for our child. In addition, we release the attending churches from the Chesapeake Presbytery and their officers, agents and/or employees (herein collectively "CP") from any claim we may have as a result of our child being injured during said week, whether based on the negligence of CP or not. ●
