

Bob Borger earned a BS in Social Work from West Virginia University; his Master's in Divinity and his Doctor of Ministry in Pastoral Counseling from Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia. Bob's doctoral project was entitled: "The House that God Built: A Blueprint for Pastoral Marriage Ministry". Bob has been an ordained Presbyterian pastor for 33 years serving churches in Wisconsin, Michigan and Georgia before coming to Maryland. Bob has also been employed with Right to Life of Michigan and the Georgia Department of Family and Children's Services. Bob's passion is to help couples with their marriage struggles as well as a wide range of life issues including divorce, single-parenting, sexual struggles, abortion, adoption, suicide, home-education, and peace-making in the church. Bob and his wife, Jan, have been married for 30 years and have four grown children and three grandchildren.
